Address, City, State, ZIP Code

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS: This application is for use in claiming property tax exemptions pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.182. You must furnish all information and documentation required by the application.

APPLICATION DEADLINES: You must file the completed application with all required documentation between Jan. 1 and no later than April 30 of the year for which you are requesting an exemption.

If the chief appraiser grants the exemption, you do not need to reapply annually unless the chief appraiser requires it. You must notify the chief appraiser in writing if and when your qualification for this exemption ends. Return the completed form to the address above.

Please note that the Supplemental Application for Community Housing Development Organization Improving Property for Low-Income and Moderate-Income Housing covers improved and unimproved real property acquired at any time during the year and must be filed not later than the 30th day after you acquired the property. You also must file the supplemental application by March 31 of the following year, listing any properties that the organization has acquired or sold in this county that received the exemption in the preceding year.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.45, after considering this application and all relevant information, the chief appraiser may request additional information from you. You must provide the additional information within 30 days of the request or the application is denied. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for furnishing the additional information by written order for a single period not to exceed 15 days.

Driver's License, Personal I.D. Certificate or Social Security Number*

If this application is for property owned by a charitable organization with a federal tax identification number, that number may be provided in lieu of a driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security number:

* Unless the applicant is a charitable organization with a federal tax identification number, the applicant's driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security account number is required. Pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.48(a), a driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security account number provided in an application for an exemption filed with a chief appraiser is confidential and not open to public inspection. The information may not be disclosed to anyone other than an employee of the appraisal office who appraises property, except as authorized by Tax Code Section 11.48(b). If the applicant is a charitable organization with a federal tax identification number, the applicant may provide the organization's federal tax identification number in lieu of a driver's license number, personal identification certificate number or social security account number.

If operated by a corporation, is the corporation non-profit as defined by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act (Art. 1396-1.01 VACS et seq.)? Yes No

STEP 3: Answer the Following Questions About the Applicant Organization

- 1. Is the organization organized as a community housing development organization (42 U.S.C. Section 12704)?
2. Is the organization engaged primarily in public charitable functions?
3. Is the organization organized exclusively to perform religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes?
4. Does the organization own the property for the purpose of building or repairing housing on it to sell or rent without profit to an individual or family satisfying the organization's low-income or moderate-income eligibility requirements?
5. Does the organization engage exclusively in the building, repair and sale or rental of housing as described above and related activities?
6. Does the organization perform, or does its charter permit it to perform, any functions other than those checked in question 3?
7. In the past year has the organization loaned funds to, borrowed funds from, sold property to or bought property from a shareholder, director or member of the organization, or had a shareholder or member sell an interest in the organization for a profit?
8. Does the organization operate in such a manner that does not result in the accrual of distributable profits, the distribution of profits or the realization of any other form of private gain?
9. Does the organization operate, or its charter permit to operate, in a manner which permits the accrual of profits or distribution of any form of private gain?
10. Does the organization have an annual audit, including a detailed report on the organization's sources and uses of funds, prepared by an independent auditor?

STEP 4: Answer these Questions About the Applicant Organization Bylaws or Charter

Attach a copy of the charter, bylaws or other documents adopted by the organization which govern its affairs and answer the following questions.

- 1. Do these documents pledge the organization's assets for use in performing the organization's charitable functions?
2. Do these documents direct that on the discontinuance of the organization, the organization's assets are to be transferred to the State of Texas or to an educational, religious, charitable or other similar organization that is qualified for exemption under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, as amended?
3. If no, do these documents direct that on discontinuance of the organization, the organization's assets are to be transferred to its members who have promised in their membership application to immediately transfer them to the State of Texas or to an educational, religious, charitable or other similar organization that is qualified for exemption under Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, as amended?
If yes, was this two-step transfer required for the organization to qualify for exemption under Section 501(c)(12), Internal Revenue Code, as amended?
